

Who We Are

The Learning Center for Human Development, Inc. is a not-for-profit Ohio corporation which was established in 1980. In 1992 it obtained its status as a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, which has been maintained to date.

The Learning Center For Human Development, Inc., is an international humanitarian and consciousness educational organization, that offers a wide range of programs that focus on developing leadership, personal empowerment and financial liberation. Our trainings include environmental awareness, understanding and respect for all global cultures. We support interfaith and are not based on any one religious affiliation or organization.

Programs operate all year. The teachers and trainers for the Learning Center for Human Development represent people from various professions, cultures and spiritual paths.

Programs for:

Professions and Businesses:

Courses provide focus on the mastery of business success which includes everything an entrepreneur needs to know, from creating business plans, to power negotiating, to wise investment strategies. Top leaders in the business world share their wealth of personal experience and knowledge in our programs.

Educational Institutions:

We provide a learning environment where understanding is the teacher. We foster knowledge and growth through exploration and personal discovery. Our programs offer an extensive range of topics.

Youth:

Through our dynamic team of seasoned professionals we reach out to the youth of our world, assisting in awakening the leaders that they are destined to become through team building, negotiating skills, and creative and artistic sessions. We take great pride in building foundations for our future leaders.

Seniors:

By surrounding ourselves with those who can share the richness of life's experiences, we create a forum where the magic of shared wisdom transfers from one generation to the next. Senior programs provide social and educational riches for all ages.

Medical Groups:

Programs are hosted by medical practitioners from all schools of the health community to educate and share modern and ancient methods of maintaining vibrant health and total well being.

Interfaith:

Learn and celebrate the many beautiful, reverent expressions of The One through representatives and practitioners of the varied cultures and religious traditions across the globe. Come share the bliss and reward yourself with our seminars and study groups.

Cherish the day.

Live for the moment

Enjoy your life.
